SECURITY

The transmission of information via the internet, email or text message is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of your information transmitted through the Services or over email; any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we will take appropriate technical and organizational measures to safeguard your personal information against loss, theft and unauthorized use, access or modification.

When we collect financial account information, such as credit card numbers, we protect its transmission through the use of encryption such as the Transport Layer Security (TLS) protocol. We encrypt the transmission of personal information using secure socket layer technology (SSL) and industry best practices.

TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES, ONLINE ADVERTISING, METRICS & ANALYTICS

We use cookies, web beacons, pixels, tags, scripts and other similar technologies in the course of our business.

We may use a service from Google called Google Analytics (GA) or similar services from other service providers, which permit us to reach people who have visited our site previously, and display to them relevant advertisements when they visit other sites across the Internet that belong to the Google Display Network. This is called 'remarketing'.

Cookies can be used to track your session on our or another website and serve customized advertising from Google and different third party vendors. When you visit a website you may look at advertisements posted on that site by Google or other third parties. Through first-party and third-party cookies, the third parties may collect information about you while you are visiting the website and other websites and use this data to show you advertisements on this website and across the Internet based on your sites visited on the Internet. For this activity, we do not collect this information or control the content of the advertisements that you will see; it is controlled by third parties such as Google.

OPTING OUT / MANAGING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

You always have the opportunity to opt out of our marketing communications with you or change your preferences by following a link in the footer of all non-transactional email messages from us or by emailing us info@seaottercanada.com. Some communications from us are considered transactional or service communications (for example, important account notifications and billing information), and your account(s) for Sea Otter Canada products and services are provided to you upon the condition that you receive these communications from us.

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

Sea Otter Canada reserves the right to modify our privacy statement at any time, so please review it from time to time. If we make significant changes to this policy, we will notify you here, by email, or by a notice on our homepage so you continue to be aware of the information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances we disclose it.
